

PRESS RELEASE

4 June 2010

Vigeo, leading European expert on responsible performance, creates two new business brands

Since its creation by Nicole Notat in 2002, Vigeo has become the leading European expert on corporate social responsibility (CSR) analysis, rating and audit-consultancy.

In order to identify and carve out even more clearly each of its businesses and services and define their underlying philosophies, Vigeo is creating two new business brands:

- Vigeo rating is the banner for the rating of companies – both those listed on major international stock exchanges and those from emerging economies – in the key fields of corporate social responsibility.

Vigeo rating assists investors and asset managers in the implementation of their socially responsible investment (SRI) strategies. Through its environmental, social and governance assessments, Vigeo rating enables them to refine their evaluation of investment risks and opportunities.

- Vigeo enterprise defines the audit-consultancy services to companies, local authorities and public organisations.

Vigeo enterprise has developed a complete range of services to assist companies and organisations in the implementation, evaluation and monitoring of their CSR policies and practices.

Nicole Notat, CEO of Vigeo, declared : “Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) risk management is taking up increasing company and investor resources in the search for sustainable and responsible value creation. Vigeo rating and Vigeo Enterprise are moving in step with this trend, which is driving the development of their products and services».
